

Study China

Application Process

Our programs are opened to anyone age 18 or over.

Step one – fill in the online application form found in the following link:

Online Form

Step two - confirmation

Once you fill in the online form we will contact you regarding availability and dates of the course(s) you applied for.

We will then send you a document stating which course you will study / internship you will carry out, at which language school / university / company, your start and end dates and the type of accommodation booked (if you decide to book accommodation). The total cost will be included in this document. You will then have to send a signed copy confirming that all details are correct (sending a scanned e-mail or faxing the document are both fine).

Step three – Application fee and deposit

An application fee and a program deposit fee must be paid in order to secure you a place at the university / school of choice. The program deposit will be deducted from the total payment. Application fees are not required for internships. Payment can be made via bank transfer. You will receive an e-mail with our bank details.

-US $50 Application Fee (non refundable)

-US $200 Program Deposit

Once payment is done we will proceed to send you the documents required for your visa application.

Step four - Chinese visa application

- a. Apply for a Chinese tourist visa (L visa) in a Chinese consulate or Embassy in your home country.
- b. Upgrade your tourist visa after your arrival in China. Study China will change your tourist visa to a study visa (X visa) or a business visa (F visa) if you are doing an internship.

Please bear in mind that the time taken to process a visa will vary from one country to another and make sure you leave enough time to apply for your visa so as to avoid starting your course/internship late.

Step five – Payment of program’s total cost

This is the final step of the application procedure where participants must make sure to complete the rest of the program payment. Please see our “Fees and Schedules” page for details on payment deadlines. Payment can be made via bank transfer.

Step six – provide us with your arrival information

After purchasing the transport ticket to China you must send us your travel details so that we can pick you up upon arrival and take you to your accommodation.
