5.Corporate Mandarin training program

The program is aimed at promoting the Mandarin communication level and social skills of professional business people working and living in Guangzhou.

It is the only Mandarin training program that concentrates on the needs of Multinational Corporations and government organizations. Our course is all about you and your company! We design our course according to the business of your company and your requirements, therefore being an indispensable course for people from both kinds of organizations, and individuals who aspire to learn Mandarin.

Trainees who complete the corporate Mandarin training program will have the following benefits:

- Highly qualified instructors

Our instructors come from a variety of professional instructors and each hold Language Teaching Degrees & Diplomas with at least 2 years experience in language training. Therefore, enabling our instructors to provide excellent training.

- Communicative and active Classes

All classes are student-centered, meaning students will generally speak for 70% of the class and instructors 30%, by ensuring students are practicing their oral language gives our instructors a chance to correct any mistakes and yet encourage progress, while providing enough language input to model examples.

- Motivating Classroom Activities

Games for fun learning and sophisticated role play are applied to stimulate all-levels learners; all ways to motivate student interest, participation and language progress.

- Real Life situation Practice

We all use language for specific purposes, from bargaining with Chinese people, to socializing at parties; we believe in relevant task-oriented practice. For instance, we take students to restaurants to refine their social language in the actual setting to stimulate and guarantee a learning experience they won't forget!
